'For Learning That Lasts A Lifetime'

5th February 2015

Dear Parents and Carers

People who help us class visits

Thank you to all those parents who have given up their time and visited the children in Class R to talk about their jobs and professions this term. The children loved listening to Jasper's daddy as he explained the role of a builder this week. Next week we very much look forward to finding out about the role of a fire fighter when Gracey's daddy comes in to talk to us.

There is still time to come into class and share your job role with the children in Class R – please call in to class and let us know when you could visit. Thank you.

Monday 8th February Class R "Pop up Chinese Restaurant"

On Monday afternoon we will begin our celebrations of the Chinese New Year – The year of the Monkey, by turning the classroom into a Chinese restaurant. We will be tasting Chinese food, egg noodles, rice, sweet and sour sauce, lemon sauce and prawn crackers. We will even try to eat using chopsticks! This has always proved to be a most popular afternoon in Class R and we look forward to sharing this experience of another culture with your child. If you would prefer your child not to try the Chinese food please let us know on Monday morning.
