

Shades of Meaning

Change the Adjectives

Read each sentence and look at the adjective in bold. Use a thesaurus to add synonyms of this adjective but with weaker and stronger shades of meaning. The first example has been done for you.

Nita was shocked stunned
astonished to see her new puppy.

Simone felt happy

when won the prize.

The

miniscule dog was scared of the fire works.

Denzel felt sad

to be leaving.

They thought that the painting was beautiful

Challenge:

Create your own sentence and give 3 adjectives to show different shades of meaning.
