

Planning format for: Persuasion: Should Michael tell his parents about the man in the garage?

Introduction: What are you writing about? Briefly explain about the man in the garage and the dilemma Michael is facing.

Reasons to support your point of view:

What would happen if Michael chooses not to agree with your point of view?

Ending:

Reflect on key points that Michael should remember.

Make one final point to urge Michael to take your advice.