

Let's Visit Australia

Today we will be:

Exploring some of Australia's physical features.

What is a
physical feature?
Can you
remember?

Correct!

A physical feature is a landmark that was made by nature not humans.

Can you name some physical features you have seen where you live?

Did you say
any of these
features?

hill

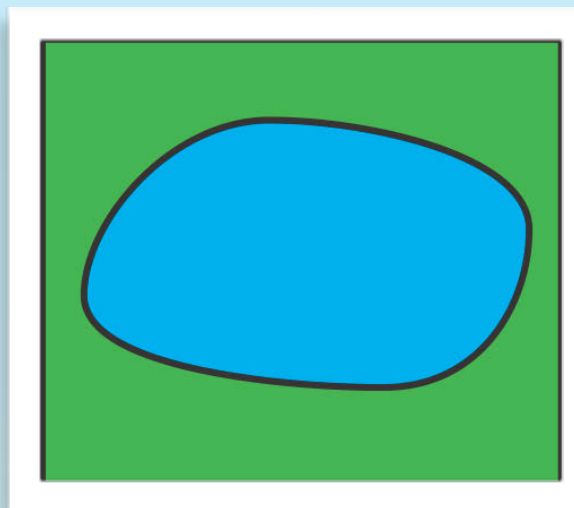

mountain

beach

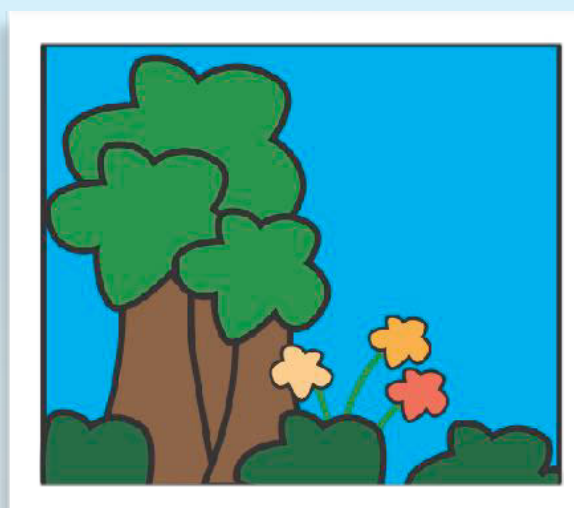

desert

lake

river

tree

ocean

Australia has some interesting physical features and
landscapes.
Let's see what they
look like.

What is this? What can you
see?

CC BY-SA 3.0, <https://commons.wikimedia.org/w/index.php?curid=800185>

Australia has many different mountains.

This is the highest mountain in Australia.
It is called Mt Kosciuszko (cos-i-os-co).
This mountain is found in New South Wales.

What is
this?
What can
you see?

Australia has
many different
rivers.

This is the longest river in Australia. It is called the Murray River. It flows through three states: New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia.

What is
this? What can you
see?

Australia has many different deserts.

This is the largest desert in Australia. It is called the Great Victoria Desert. It spreads across two states: Western Australia and South Australia.

What is
this?
What can
you see?

Australia has
many different
lakes.

This is the largest lake in Australia. It is called Lake Eyre (air). It is found in South Australia.

What is
this?
What can
you see?

Australia has
many hills
and rocks.

This is Ayers Rock (also known as Uluru). It is a rock formation in Central Australia. It is a sacred place.

What is
this?
What can
you see?

Australia has
many different
beaches.

This is Ninety Mile Beach. It is the longest beach in Australia and the second longest beach in the world. It is found in Victoria.

Plenary

Which pictures are showing you a physical feature found in Australia.

What are the other pictures showing you?

Back
Next

Plenary

Did you
guess
correctly?

